FAMILIES

© www.google.com

Traditionally a monogamous long-term relationship has been seen as the cornerstone of a functional family but this seems to be changing.

Talk about different types of families and the consequences of these changes in families for future generations.

You have up to 5 minutes to prepare your talk. You can take notes or make a brief plan of what you are going to say. Talk to the examiners for about 3 – 4 minutes. You can use your notes during your talk but not read them out loud. At the end of your presentation, the examiners will ask you a couple of questions. Your production will be recorded.
